

Dear Hiring Committee,

My name is Fatema Rahimi, a Computer Science graduate with four years of programming experience and a strong passion for empowering communities through technology and education. I am writing to express my interest in joining your organization .

Throughout my academic and professional journey, I have developed strong technical skills in JavaScript, Node.js, HTML, CSS, and Vue.js, which have enabled me to design, develop, and test interactive, user-friendly web platforms. Beyond technical expertise, I bring valuable experience in teaching computer skills to young girls in challenging conditions. I used modern digital tools and creative methods to make learning more engaging and accessible.

My commitment to empowering women and girls has also led me to participate in several UNFPA seminars and workshops in Herat Province, where I gained practical knowledge in Life Skills, HLS, and MHM. These experiences helped me understand inclusive education, digital literacy, and the importance of supporting youth through technology and innovation.

What sets me apart is my ability to connect technical innovation with social impact. I believe technology is not just a tool it is a bridge that opens opportunities for those left behind. My empathy, adaptability, and teamwork skills allow me to work effectively in multicultural environments and contribute meaningfully to collaborative missions.

I would be honored to bring my skills, creativity, and dedication to your team and support initiatives that promote education, equality, and innovation. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with your organization's goals.

Warm regards,

Fatema Rahimi
